Women's Basketball Weekly Blog

February 7, 2018

Hello faithful blog readers. This past weekend we traveled to Kentucky Wesleyan and Trevecca. We ended the trip 1-1, with a loss to KWC and a win against Trevecca. A little warning before you continue reading...unfortunately the majority of this blog is focused on some pretty disappointing news and may be less basketball oriented than what you are used to.

During our game against KWC in the second quarter Regina went down with a knee injury. It was the same knee she tore her ACL in sophomore year here at Cedarville. We found out Monday that Reg re-tore her ACL and her meniscus and will be having surgery this upcoming Wednesday. Obviously, this news hit our team hard. I write all the time about how close our team is and how much we all love each other and although I wouldn't trade that for the world when things like this happen it really affects everyone. When one is hurting we all hurt and this weekend was a prime example of that. A huge thank you to everyone that reached out the Regina with prayers and encouragement, I know it really meant a lot to Reg and honestly it meant a lot to the team knowing so many people were praying for our teammate. I asked Reg if she wanted to say anything in the blog because sometimes this is the most efficient way to update and thank everyone. So here is a message from our guest writer....

"Throughout all of this I've especially been overwhelmed by the amount of support that I've received from not only my teammates, coaches, and family, but also by everyone else that has made an effort to reach out to me in any way. I truly appreciate all of you and cannot say thank you enough for all of your kind words and prayers. God is good and God's ways are higher and I'm excited to see what He's got this time around. As upset as I am that I can't finish out this season on the court, I'm still feeling so privileged that I get the opportunity to sit on the sideline and cheer on a team, and be a part of a team that's going to do some pretty cool things yet this year! Knee surgery round two is happening next Wednesday (Valentine's Day) where the plan is to repair a torn meniscus and ACL." – Reg

The morning after Reg's injury in the hotel lobby I was talking with Coach and Jimmy and I asked the question, "Why do these things keep happening to us?". Jimmy admitted his answer was clique but honestly truth was spoken in that hotel lobby (thank you Jimmy). He said as Christians we are called to endure and keep going and so sometimes really unfortunate things happen for us to be able to show what it looks like to persevere through trials, to trust in God, and to be able to show who we represent and how we play for something bigger. Something adversity, injury, and trials can't take away from us. We play for a greater purpose.

I think of the quote "there is still a plan unfolding, and somebody has their eyes on you to see how you'll respond to these circumstances. Actually, its probably true that more people have eyes on you in the pit than were watching when you came down the road in a multi-colored coat." Coach talked about how people are watching to see how we will respond to this adversity and how we have an opportunity, an opportunity to play inspired basketball. More eyes are on us now. We came out and played inspired, played with toughness, and played with grit. I wish you all could have been there to witness the heart that was left on the floor. Also...Baylee Bennett now holds the school record for three's made in a single game with...just wait... 11 THREE POINTERS! It was amazing.

The last thing I will share with you all is our team's new mantra. When thinking about how we needed to rise to the challenge presented to us and persevere through some adversity, we said, "rise up" and so far it's stuck. We found this Bible verse after the fact but it fits perfectly. It is Psalm 20:7-8, "Some trust in chariots and some in horses, but we trust in the name of the Lord our God. They collapse and fall, but we rise and stand upright."

Some great things are happening during this time of adversity with the team and special things are going to happen the rest of this season. Please continue to pray for Regina, please pray for our team to remain injury free the rest of the season, and please pray that we would be able to point people towards Christ during this time.

Abby Wolford is a junior from Cincinnati, OH majoring in health and physical education. She is in her third season with the Lady Jackets after missing the entire 2016-17 campaign due to injury.

Tonight's Game

The Cedarville University Lady Jackets host the Ohio Dominican University Panthers in a Great Midwest Athletic Conference (G-MAC) game tonight in the Callan Athletic Center as part of Alumni and Hall of Fame weekend.

Cedarville is under the leadership of second-year Head Coach Kari Hoffman (37-15). The Lady Jackets are 18-4 (13-3 G-MAC) and tied for first place in the G-MAC with Ursuline. CU defeated Trevecca 83-38 on Saturday in Nashville as Baylee Bennett set a school record with 11 three-point field goals.

Ohio Dominican enters tonight's game with a 16-6 overall record including a 12-4 mark in the G-MAC. The Panthers, winners of five straight, posted an 86-75 win at Kentucky Wesleyan on Saturday.

Regina Hochstetler, a 5-7 junior guard, leads the Cedarville offensive attack with a 17.8 points per game scoring average but is sidelined for the remainder of the season with a knee injury.

Junior Baylee Bennett, a 5-5 guard, is the second-leading scorer for the Lady Jackets (13.5 ppg). She tops the squad with 78 three-point field goals and ranks ninth all-time at CU with 172 three-point field goals.

Guard Kaitlyn Holm, a 5-7 senior, is the third Lady Jacket scoring in double digits with an 11.5 ppg average to go with a team-high 68 assists.

Senior Breanne Watterworth, a 6-3 forward, is averaging 10.8 ppg and 9 rpg with a second-best .607 field goal pct. Watterworth grabbed a career-high 18 rebounds in the win at Trevecca.

Ohio Dominican is led by Head Coach Lynsey Warren who is in her sixth year with the Panthers (88-71). A former collegiate basketball and volleyball player at Ashland University, Warren joined the ODU program as an assistant coach in 2011-12.

Topping the Panthers offense is two-time G-MAC Player of the Week Sarah Futscher. The 6-0 senior forward is scoring 13.1 ppg and bringing in a team-best 7.1 rpg.

Darian Rose, a 5-8 senior guard, is the team's second-leading scorer (12.1 ppg) and has hit double digits in six of the last seven contests.

Alexis Fisher, a 5-9 sophomore guard, is the top deep threat with 44 three-point field goals.

Cedarville leads the all-time series with the Panthers by a 32-28 margin including a 72-70 win in Columbus earlier this year on January 6.

The teams first met in women's basketball during the 1971-72 season - a 44-28 Ohio Dominican victory.
